The Skillman Corporation now has a total of 15 LEED Accredited Professionals on staff. LEED Professional Accreditation distinguishes building professionals who have the knowledge and skills to successfully manage the integrated design and LEED certification process. They have demonstrated an understanding of green building practices and principles and familiarity with LEED requirements, resources and processes.

The Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Green Building Rating System is the nationally accepted standard for the design, construction, and operation of high performance, environmentally sustainable buildings. The credit-based system allows projects to earn points for environmentally friendly actions taken during construction and use of a building.

The Skillman Corporation was founded in 1972 as a Professional Project Administration and Agency Construction Management firm that would devote 100 percent of its time and energy to representing the Owner's interests during their individual projects. Skillman's staff of 66 employees serves clients from offices in Indianapolis, Indiana; Evansville, Indiana; Merrillville, Indiana; Champaign, Illinois; Grand Rapids, Michigan; and Cincinnati, Ohio.
