Skillman Names Scott V. Cherry Senior Vice President

Indianapolis, IN - December 8, 2011 - The Skillman Corporation is pleased to announce the promotion of Scott V. Cherry to Senior Vice President. In his new role, Scott will serve as a member of the corporate management team and be responsible for the Northern Indiana, Michigan and Chicagoland markets.

Mr. Cherry has been with Skillman for 15 years with 30 years of experience in the construction industry. His leadership as regional manager of Skillman's Merrillville office and involvement in the community has been instrumental in the corporation's success in Northern Indiana. In addition to his new role as Senior Vice President, Mr. Cherry is also involved in a number of organizations including Board of Directors for Leadership Northwest Indiana (LNI), Boys & Girls Clubs of Northwest Indiana, Junior Achievement and Board of Directors for the North Shore Health Centers.

Based in Indianapolis, the family-owned construction company was formed in 1972. Since that time, its operations have spread to four offices throughout Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan. In 2011, the firm completed construction projects totaling $264 million.
