

Job Posting
Project Engineer
Michigan Office

The Skillman Corporation, a Leading Construction Manager in Southwest Michigan seeks a Project Engineer

This is an entry level position to assist the project team with the administration and management of projects. The position entails managing the submittal process, payment applications, schedules, change management, specifications and closeout documentation.

In order to be considered the candidate must have excellent communication skills, oral and written, and experience with computers and computer software.

Preferred candidate shall possess 30 hr. OSHA, and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Construction Management and have experience with management software to include PlanGrid, Contract Manager & Primavera P6.